CTO

Berenda 2026-01 : 2029-12

Berenda Is An Emerging Tech Startup Focused On Building An Online Property Listing Platform That Connects Buyers, Renters, And Sellers With Accurate, Up-To-Date Real Estate Information. The Platform Is Designed To Simplify Home And Property Search Experiences By Offering Intuitive Search Tools, Rich Property Details, And Data-Driven Insights For Users In Ethiopia And Beyond. As Chief Technology Officer (CTO) At Berenda, I Am Responsible For Shaping And Executing The Startup's Technology Strategy And Leading The Product Development Process. My Key Contributions Include: Technical Vision & Strategy: Define The Architecture And Technology Roadmap For A Scalable, Secure Property Listing Platform Tailored To Market Needs. Product Development Leadership: Lead Full-Stack Development Efforts — From Database Design And Backend APIs To Responsive User Interfaces. Team Coordination: Mentor And Coordinate Developers, Ensuring Efficient Collaboration And High-Quality Deliverables. System Architecture: Design Robust Backend Systems And Data Pipelines To Handle Property Data, User Authentication, And Search Functionality. User Experience Focus: Implement Intuitive UX/UI Features That Help Users Filter Listings, View Property Details, And Interact Seamlessly With The Platform. Emerging Tech Adoption: Explore And Integrate Technologies Such As Cloud Hosting, Geolocation Services, And Data Analytics To Enhance Platform Performance And Insights. Quality Assurance & Deployment: Establish Testing, CI/CD Workflows, And Deployment Processes To Maintain Product Reliability And Rapid Iteration. Berenda Is Positioned To Become A Go-To Digital Real Estate Marketplace, Driven By My Leadership In Crafting Solutions That Meet User Needs And Support Business Growth.
